

Order No. 8-11-1 of the Head of RTU Foreign Students Department as of November 7, 2009.

In order to increase performance efficiency of RTU Foreign Students Department (FSD), by the terms set out in these regulations full time foreign students shall comply with the following rules:

1. Students should receive the schedule not later than two days after arrival;
2. Students are required to demonstrate mandatory attendance of the lectures, laboratory works and seminars (classes);
3. The student, who misses more than a week of classes, can be exmatriculated from the university;
4. The student, who within the period of two months misses more than 50% of the total number of the classes scheduled for any of the study courses in the particular study semester, should be suspended from the study course, and after paying the fee for repeating the study course, which has been calculated in compliance with the number of credit points, has to repeatedly undertake the given study course within the specified period of time. If the student fails to attend the repeatedly undertaken study course, then they are exmatriculated from the university;
5. The student, who changes their place of residence, should inform RTU FSD bringing their rental agreement at least three days before changing the place of residence. If the student fails to fulfil the requirements, then they are exmatriculated from the university.
