

Claudia Sicignano, Building Engineer and architect (Italy)

D.I.CIV. Department of Civil Engineering, University of Salerno, via Giovanni Paolo II n. 132, 84084, Fisciano (SA), Italy. Mail: claudia.sicignano@libero.it

Curriculum vitae

She obtained a Master Degree in Building Engineering and Architecture in 2012 at the University of Salerno, Faculty of Engineering, with a thesis in “Architectural Restoration and Hydraulic Construction”. She is PhD in “Architectural Technology and Environmental Surveying and Representation” at the Faculty of Architecture “Federico II” of Naples. She is specialized technician in relief with innovative technologies for the evaluation of the vulnerability of the historical-artistic heritage at STRESS S.c.a.r.l. and the Consortium TRE - Technologies for Building Recovery - in Naples. Her interests and researches deal with Urban Planning, Landscape and Land Protection, Public and Private Buildings, Hydrogeological Disruption. She is author of numerous public and private works as well as publications in monographs and journals and contributions in national and international architectural magazines.